

Lesson 4 - Look outside of your window. What human and physical things can you see? Draw all of the human features in one colour and all of the physical features in another.

You could also look at the photos of the continents on dojo and draw write or say some human and physical features that you can see on the continents.